

Motor insurance with non-motoring convictions – June 2021

Background

We have been developing access to fair insurance for people with convictions since 2000. Since then we have worked hard to make it easier for you to get genuine cover at a fair price. Unlock is an independent charity, and so we do not provide insurance directly. We are not FCA regulated and so we're not able to provide specific insurance advice. This list sits alongside detailed guidance on insurance and convictions, and the list of insurance brokers. Both are available to download here.

Advice on using this table

- Since April 2013, for personal insurance, if the company doesn't ask you about convictions, you do not have to tell them.
- Many motor insurance companies ask about non-motoring convictions. Where they do, even if you think it's not relevant, you must disclose (although only what is unspent).
- However, some mainstream insurance companies do not ask about non-motoring convictions (remember to check any assumptions or terms/conditions of cover).
- So long as your conviction don't fall within the questions that the company are asking, you don't have to tell them.
- The table below contains details of some of the major personal motor insurance providers who do not ask about non-motoring convictions (unless otherwise stated).

If you find that any of the details are incorrect, or have suggestions of further additions to this list, please let us know by emailing advice@unlock.org.uk.
